 California Professional Nutrition Education and Training (CAL-PRO-NET) Center
 announces:

A Food Safety (using HACCP Principles) and Emergency Preparedness Workshop

We are pleased to announce that the California Department of Education, Nutrition Services Division, is sponsoring a workshop series on developing a school food safety program and emergency preparedness. This training uses the modified Process Approach, a streamlined, practical system that incorporates all of the principles of HACCP (Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point). At the same workshop we will be presenting Emergency Preparedness to assist you in knowing what to plan for in case of an emergency. Both course materials have been developed by the National Food Service Management Institute in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).
