Financial Management II for School Nutrition Directors

Provided by the California Professional Nutrition Education and Training (Cal-Pro-NET) Center,
University of California, Davis (UCD)

In partnership with the Nutrition Services Division, California Department of Education

Course Information

This two-day, interactive seminar for experienced school nutrition directors will explore some of the complex financial management issues and trends in school nutrition programs today. Topics include: strategies for increasing revenues and managing expenses, the impact of recent legislation on financial management of school nutrition programs, business plans, and analysis of financial records.

To provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and expertise, the team of instructors will include experienced school nutrition directors Debra Amos and Brenda Padilla, and leading school business official Baldev Johal.

Prerequisite: Financial Management I (or equivalent experience)
